

Station House
Belcoo

Restored station house, platform, signal house, railway gates, lamps, signals and station name. Original railway documents and receipts held dating back to 1899.

Directions: At the top of village on Garrison Road. Railway gates and signals denote location.

Opening Times:
Sat 10am - 6pm
Sun Not open

St Patrick's Holy Well
Holywell, Belcoo

The well is extensive, measuring about one thousand square feet. There are two outlets with an estimated yield of water of 600 gallons per minute. Pilgrimages take place but today the view will be from behind protective fencing. Local history will be available.

Directions: About 1 mile from Belcoo on the Garrison Road. Turn right at the sign for Ballintempo.

Opening Times:
Sat Not open
Sun 2pm - 6pm

Crom
Newtownbutler

One of Ireland's most important nature conservation areas - Crom is home to ancient woodland, picturesque islands and many rare species. Enjoy one of the inspirational woodland walks and nature trails, and visit the Historic Castle ruins and walled garden.

Directions: 3 mile from A34, well signposted from Newtownbutler.

Opening Times:
Sat 11am - 5pm
Sun Open, but normal charges apply

Aghalurcher Church
Lisnaskea

This is the site of an ancient church or monastery founded by St Ronan, possibly in the 7th century. By the medieval period it was a large important parish, but in ruins by 1622.

Directions: 1.5 miles south of Lisnaskea.

Opening Times:
Sat Open Access
Sun Open Access

A Walking Tour of Lisnaskea
Lisnaskea

A walk through Lisnaskea past some of the town's best known buildings - The Corn Market, Butter Market, Balfour Castle (which will open specially) and the Workhouse which will have a re-enactment of a children's workhouse setting. Refreshments for children will be provided. The tour will meet at Doncarragh Hotel, Main Street, Lisnaskea.

Directions: Leave the Fivemiletown to Enniskillen road at Maguire's Bridge, Lisnaskea is about 3 miles further on.

Opening Times:
Sat Tour starts at 2pm lasting approximately 1.5 hrs
Sun Tour starts at 2pm lasting approximately 1.5 hrs

Castle Balfour
149-159 Main Street, Lisnaskea

The castle was under construction by the Scottish planter Sir James Balfour in 1619 on the site of a Maguire stronghold and it ceased to be inhabited after a fire in 1803. Follow your visit with a guided walk around the Conservation Area. See separate entry.

Directions: Signposted off the Main Street in Lisnaskea.

Opening Times:
Sat Open access
Sun Open access

NIEA

Monea Castle

Derrygonnelly

A plantation castle, built in 1619 for Malcolm Hamilton of Portaferry, later Archbishop of Cashel. Captured in the 1641 rising and then occupied by the governor of Enniskillen. Abandoned about 1750 after an accidental fire. Meet the Musketeer on Saturday and discover his role in troubled times of the 17th Century. Part of NIEA's Living History programme.

Directions: 0.5 miles south of Monea village in Castletown demesne.

Opening Times:

Sat Open Access

Sun Open Access. Living History
12pm-4pm

NIEA E

Tully Castle

Church Hill, Derrygonnelly

A fortified house and bawn completed in 1619 and now with a 17th century style garden.

Directions: Approximately 15 miles from Enniskillen on the Shore Road.

Opening Times:

Sat Not open

Sun 12noon - 4pm

NIEA EHOD

Janus Figures

Caldragh Cemetery, Boa Island

Janus was an ancient Roman deity. These figures follow the usual pattern with grotesque heads and bodies facing opposite ways. The larger has an opening for offerings between the heads. The smaller has been defaced. They date from the fifth or sixth centuries.

Directions: At the western end of Boa Island 6 miles from Kesh on the road to Belleek.

Opening Times:

Sat 1pm - 4pm. Guide on site

Sun 1pm - 4pm. Guide on site

LB E

Aughakillymaude Mummers Centre

Knockninny, Derrylin

The centre, housed in a listed former school explains the history of mumming, and provides an opportunity to dress up in costume and play skittles. Here the Wicker Man is burned to mark the start of each spring. Straw craft demonstration, try your hand at making a 'Mummer's hat'.

Directions: From Enniskillen after 9.5 miles on the Derrylin road, turn left at sign for Knockninny Quay. Pass the quarry and property is 700m on left.

Opening Times:

Sat 10:30am - 3:30pm

Sun Not open

LB NT T

Castle Coole

Belfast Road, Enniskillen

Savour the exquisite grandeur of this stunning 18th century mansion. As one of Ireland's finest neo-classical houses, the sumptuous Regency interior provides a rare treat for visitors to glimpse what life was like in the home of the Earls of Belmore. Activity in the impressive basement kitchen surrounding the arrival of the Lincoln range.

Directions: On A4, 1.5 miles from Enniskillen, on the main Enniskillen to Belfast Road.

Opening Times:

Sat 11am - 5pm. First tour 11:15am, last tour 4pm

Sun Open, but normal charges apply

LB

Convent Chapel

Convent of Mercy, Belmore Street, Enniskillen

The chapel was designed by William Scott in 1904 in the Byzantine Revival style. It is noted for its collection of stained glass by the Tower of Glass, Dublin. Visit Rossorry church to view other examples.

Directions: At the junction of Belmore and East Bridge Streets. Located behind the Clinton Centre.

Opening Times:

Sat 9am - 5pm

Sun 9am - 10:30am

Rossorry Parish Church
Rossorry Church Road, Enniskillen

1841. A church of cruciform plan exhibiting Romanesque and Gothic detailing. Architect: William Hegarty. Tower added in memory of Robert Johnson of Lisgoole Abbey. Tower of Glass windows by Child and O'Brien.

Directions: 1.5 miles along Church Road off the Enniskillen - Sligo road after Ashwood's Garden Centre.

Opening Times:

Sat Not open
Sun 2pm - 5pm

Devenish
Trory Point, Enniskillen

An island community founded in the 6th century by St Molaise. Suffered Viking attack and burned in 1157. In the Middle Ages it flourished as the parish church and St Mary's Augustinian Priory. Best known for its intact round tower, there is much else to see and explore.

Directions: Take the A32 from Enniskillen to Trory Point. Visitors will have to make their own way to the island as the ferry that was active last year for EHOD is not included this year. For further queries, please telephone 028 90543022.

Opening Times:

Sat 10am - 6pm
Sun 10am - 6pm
Living History both days 12pm-4pm

Enniskillen Castle Museums
Castle Barracks, Wellington Road, Enniskillen

The museum covers over 600 years of history from a Maguire stronghold, through Plantation times to military use. The gateway to the heritage of Fermanagh and Enniskillen. Visitors can bring along items relating to local and national history from 1910 - 1930. The 'History in the Attic' exhibition gives access to photographs from this period.

Directions: Situated on the Wellington Road, within easy walking distance of the town centre. There is a free car park adjacent to the castle.

Opening Times:

Sat 2pm - 5pm
Sun 2pm - 5pm

Enniskillen Courthouse
East Bridge Street, Enniskillen, BT47 7BP

The building is in regular use as the sole Courthouse in County Fermanagh. There are a range of Courts which sit in Enniskillen, including Crown, County and Magistrates Courts. There are two Court rooms, Judges rooms, Jury retiring rooms, cells and video conference room. The tour will provide access to areas of the building not normally open to the public.

Directions: The courthouse is located at 17 East Bridge Street, Enniskillen. This is a one-way street on the Belfast side leading to the town centre.

Opening Times:

Sat 10:15am - 4pm. Tours at 10:15am, 11:15am, 12:15 pm, 2pm & 3pm
Sun Not open

Florence Court
Florencecourt, Enniskillen

At the centre of this great Irish estate lies Florence Court House, one of the most charming and beautiful mansions in Ulster. Enjoy a fascinating upstairs/downstairs tour, and then relax in the peaceful gardens and take in the stunning views.

Directions: 8 miles south-west of Enniskillen via A4 and then A32 towards Swanlinbar, well signposted.

Opening Times:

Sat 11am - 5pm. First tour 11:15am. Last tour 4pm
Sun Open, but normal charges apply

Headhunters Railway Museum
5 Darling Street, Enniskillen

A trip to the museum brings the golden age of the railway vividly to life and looks at the impact that the railways had on people's lives. Children can enjoy operating signalling equipment, sending messages by morse code and creating their own crayon rubbings of railway signs.

Directions: At the west end of Enniskillen opposite the Methodist Church.

Opening Times:

Sat 9am - 5:30pm
Sun 11am - 5pm

Masonic Hall Enniskillen

3 Tempo Road, Enniskillen, BT74 6HR

Constructed in 1932 to the designs of Benjamin Cowser and John MacGeagh, this carefully crafted masonic hall is one of the finest in Northern Ireland. It enjoys a prominent position at the junction of Dublin Road and Tempo Road.

Directions: In Enniskillen, at the junction of Dublin Road and Tempo Road.

Opening Times:

Sat 10am - 4pm

Sun Not open

Model Primary School

3 Castlecoole Road, Enniskillen, BT94 2HQ

The current split level school building was opened in 1974 and is an interesting 'square' design with rooms on the upper level surrounding an open plan dining hall/assembly hall. A Model School has occupied this site since 1867. Many areas are irregular in shape. The architect who designed the school will be there to answer questions.

Directions: Coming from Belfast, about 1 mile past the Killyhevlin Hotel, and on the right opposite the Tesco store.

Opening Times:

Sat 12noon - 6pm

Sun Not open

The Inniskillings Museum

The Castle, Enniskillen, BT74 7HL

A military collection of the Inniskilling Regiments situated in the Castle Keep of Enniskillen Castle, a 16th century building. A virtual tour for the disabled is located in the ground floor of the keep.

Directions: Fermanagh County Museum and Regimental Museum are situated within Enniskillen Castle. Follow sign posts for Castle Museums. Situated on the Wellington Road, It is within easy walking distance of the town centre. Free car park adjacent to the castle.

Opening Times:

Sat 2pm - 5pm

Sun 2pm - 5pm

Town Hall

Townhall Street, Enniskillen

This imposing building erected 1898 - 1901 was designed by William Scott and built of Carrickreagh stone. "At the corner a six-storey tower soars over the confined area of the Diamond acting as a focus for all the converging streets" (UAHS).

Directions: The Townhall is located in the Enniskillen town centre just off the Diamond.

Opening Times:

Sat 9am - 2pm

Sun Not open

Cuilcagh Mountain - Jeep Safari

Marble Arch Caves Global Geopark, Marbank Scenic Route, Florencecourt, BT92 1EW

Join Geopark staff for a jeep safari tour of Cuilcagh Mountain Park. Explore the stunning surroundings whilst learning about the geology, wildlife & history of this unique area. Not suitable for children under 12 years old, all children must be accompanied by an adult. Pre-booking essential, telephone 028 6634 8855.

Directions: From Enniskillen follow A4 Sligo Road, join A32 (Swadlinbar Road) after 3 miles. From there follow signposts for Marble Arch Caves.

Opening Times:

Sat Event at 2pm & 4pm. Visitor Centre open 9am - 4:30pm

Sun No Event

Keenaghan Old Abbey & Cemetery

Keenaghan, Belleek, BT93

Scheduled monument, two walls of the 15th-century abbey stand to their full height and retain an important medieval window in the east gable. A stone head from the church is held in the Fermanagh County Museum. Evidence uncovered through conservation revealed that the structure was originally thatched.

Directions: North of the A47 Belleek - Kesh Road about 2 miles from the village, at the T junction there is a brown tourist sign for fishing at Keenaghan Lough. Follow the 2nd class road north for only 200 metres. On the left is the entrance gate with sign.

Opening Times:

Sat 12noon - 5pm

Sun 12noon - 5pm

Belle Isle Estate Courtyard & Coach House

Belle Isle Estate, Belle Isle, Lisbellaw, BT94 5HG

Mid-Victorian courtyard and coach houses, where cows were milked by hand. It housed turkeys, pigs, calves with a bull pen on one side along with fuel and machinery stores. Enjoy the 18th century walled garden with Victorian borders and a recently planted orchard of old Irish apple tree varieties.

Directions: From Lisbellaw follow signs to Carrybridge. At Carrybridge turn left at 'T' junction, Belle Isle is one mile on the right.

Opening Times:

Sat 10am - 5pm
Sun Not open

Colebrooke Estate

Colebrooke Park, Brookeborough, BT94 4DW

Colebrooke Park, designed by William Farrell in 1820 is a family home, the seat of Viscount & Viscountess Brookeborough and one of Northern Ireland's most important and historic stately homes.

Directions: Between Fivemiletown and Brookeborough, turn at the sign for Colebrooke Parish Church. At the crossroads, turn right. The main entrance is the next left through the 'grand gates'. Follow the road to the front of the house. For more detailed directions go to www.colebrooke.info

Opening Times:

Sat 12 noon - 6pm. Tour at 2pm lasting 1 hour
Sun 2pm - 6pm. Tour at 3pm lasting 1 hour

The Triumphal Arch Gatelodge

Colebrooke Estate, near Fivemiletown

The Gatelodge is one of the gateways to Colebrooke Park, one of Northern Ireland's most stately homes which was recently renovated and refurbished by the present Viscount and Viscountess Brookeborough. Enjoy a host of outdoor activities such as fishing the Colebrooke River, walking trails and bird watching.

Directions: Off the Enniskillen Road at one of the entrances to Colebrooke Park and Demesne about 2 miles from Fivemiletown.

Opening Times:

Sat Not open
Sun 10am - 4pm